Developer Standards TOC

Table of Contents

- Introduction to Developer Standards
- Development Team Preferred Technologies
- Modules and Packages Defined
    - Modules
    - Packages
- Client-side Technologies and Information
    - CoffeeScript Style
    - Text Editor or IDE
- Predevelopment
- Peer Review and Versioning Strategy
    - Peer and Lead Review Standards
        - Contributing Code to National Geographic
            - Development Peer Reviews
                - Step 1 Review the code one last time
                - Step 2 Initiate a pull request
                - Step 3 Provide information related to the pull request
                - Step 4 Copy pull request information to JIRA ticket
                - Step 5 Assign a ticket or pull request for review
                - Step 6 Reviewing a pull request
                - Step 7 Merge pull request
                - Code Requirements Questions
                - Pull Request Examples
                - Pull Request Validation Sheet
                - Additional Resources - Peer Review Standards
        - Git - Developer Workflow
            - Executive Summary
            - GitHub Flow Workflow
                - Principles of GitHub Flow
                    - Any codebase in the master is deployable
                    - Create a feature branch off the master
                    - Push to named branches constantly
                    - Open a pull request at any time
                    - Merge only after pull request review
                    - Deploy immediately
- Developer Standards Playbook
    - Development Team Overview
    - Best Practices Review - Development
        - Know how to Unit Test
        - Understand Automation Best Practices
        - Understand Commit Messages
        - Understand Peer Review Workflow
        - Understand Testing Guidelines
        - Peer Review Checklist (Short Version)
        - Development - Points of Contact
- Style Guide Portal
    - Code Style Guidelines - Python and AEM
        - AEM Style Guidelines
        - Python Code Guidelines
    - Documentation Best Practices
        - Documentation Development
            - Getting started
                - Making a template
        - Documentation How-Tos
        - Documentation Methodology
        - Document Creation
            - Structured Content
            - Templates
    - CSS Style Guide
        - CSS Style Overview
            - CSS Rules of Engagement
            - Naming Conventions
            - Selectors
            - Properties
            - Ordering

        - Media Queries
        - Z-index Guidelines
        - Architecture
            - Object Oriented CSS
            - Scalable and Modular Architecture for CSS
            - BEM
            - OOCSS plus SMACSS plus BEM equals
        - SASS
        - Compass
        - Autoprefixer
        - Mortar
        - Don't Use Compass
    - JS Styleguide
    - Web Fonts
        - Approved Domains
        - Approved Fonts
        - Audience
        - Vendors
- Local Development Environment Portal
    - AEM Local Dev Environment Setup
    - Local Dev Environment Set Up
        - Introduction-Dev Environment Setup
        - Install XCode-Mac Users
        - Install Homebrew
        - Install Python and Related Libraries
        - Create and configure .bash_profile file
        - Install and Configure Git
        - Install Postgresql
        - Install Memcached
        - Install Node and Node Packages
        - Install Mortar
        - Install Ruby Version Manager and Packages
        - Configure SSH Client
        - Install Redis
        - Install RabbitMQ
        - Install MMDB and Member Center
        - Install NGC
        - Install New Web Publishing Projects-Django
        - Install NGINX
        - Sync from Production
        - Review Celeryd Configuration Examples
        - Install Activity Streams-Service
- Service Providers Passwords